

Call for Proposals for Stakeholder Consultation or Training Workshops or Conferences for 2015 / 2016

The National Commission on Research, Science and Technology (NCRST) is established in terms of the Research, Science and Technology Act, 2004 (Act 23 of 2004) to provide for the Promotion, Coordination and Development of Research, Science, Technology and Innovation (RSTI) in Namibia. The NCRST as competent authority responsible for coordination and development of RSTI in Namibia is inviting interested organisations to submit proposals for stakeholder consultation workshops; training workshops or conferences.

Call open from 24 August to 24 September 2015

Purpose of Call:

The National Call is aimed at Institutions who wish to hold stakeholder consultation workshops; training workshops or conferences aimed at discussing the latest scientific results and innovations or enabling technologies of national interest, in Research, Science, Technology and Innovation. Workshop topics must be related to one or a combination of the Priority Research Areas as outlined in the National Programme on Research, Science, Technology and Innovation (NPRSTI) 2014 to 2017. The consultations are to cater for a high number of participants from academia and industry alike. Applications being submitted by partnering institutions that pursue similar research / innovation / training interests are encouraged.
